

uCommander: the UDS service tool

uCommander is a software tool aimed at providing secure and easy access for update of ECU firmware, certificates and other maintenance or configurations tasks while supporting multiple AEPL projects

Legend: Stable build QA build hotfix

Release Notes:

29 March 2024 v0.1.0 (DIET TCU only)

- UDS flashing with 29-bit id. Currently only firmware upload is supported
- Bootloader locking from TesterPresentSvc supported
- File browse and transfer supported
- ECU reset supported
- Basic debug log window

Known limitations

- User will see a black window when launching the exe, to be addressed soon
- UI may become unresponsive when clicked Boot Lock or ECU Reset, to be addressed soon
- The UI flow does not allow consecutive flashing, to be addressed soon

uCommander Development Lead

Eshwar eshwar.jorvekar@accoladeelectronics.com